Roisín Ní Shiúrtáin
Cathaoirleach, Tír Eoghain

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to Healy Park for the Donnelly Vauxhall Senior Championship Final 2015.

In the U16 game, the young footballers of Dromore and Loughmacrory will experience the biggest club day in Tyrone. Both sets of players, their managers and their supporters will set out seeking victory, one which will go down in their club history. I wish both teams well, and look forward to a wonderful game of football.

In the Senior Final, the stage is set for what promises to be a highly entertaining encounter. 12 months after contesting an Intermediate Championship Final, Trillick may have surprised some people in qualifying for today's decider for the first time since 1987. They have produced three very polished performances to date and they certainly are well equipped to add an 7th O'Neill Cup to their collection.

As reigning League Champions, Killyclogher would have started the year with ambitions of collecting their first O'Neill Cup since 2003. They have navigated a difficult route to the final and will be confident they can add a second ever County title. Today another group of players and managers will add their names onto their club history and I wish all involved good fortune.

I would also like to welcome to Healy Park the referees for today's games, Jerome McElroy and Mark O'Neill along with their linesmen and umpires. Today is a big day for them too, and I wish all involved in both games well.

As always, Coisti Contae Tír Eoghain continue to be deeply indebted to our administrators, gatemen, stewards, officers and grounds staff for their dedication and display of the voluntary ethos that runs right through our Association at all levels. Volunteers and dedication to our communities are key values. Agus tá muid buíoch. Go raibh míle maith agaibh.

I am pleased to welcome our new Championship sponsors Donnelly Vauxhall represented today by Terence Donnelly. The Donnelly Group have been great supporters of Tyrone GAA over the years and we are delighted to have them on board. I also welcome representatives from McAleer & Rushe, O'Neills, Bank Of Ireland, Moy Park and Deep River Rock and thank them all for their continued support.

The mini-games are played by the children selected from the Club Tyrone Summer Camps, which this year had 4,000 plus children in attendance. Please show your appreciation to the children, our stars of the future.

Today our entertainment is the Instrumental Music Scor na Nóg group representing Both Domhnaigh with our current Scor na nOg Champion Dearbhla Scallan singing the National Anthem. Culture is important to Tyrone and on behalf, of you all, I congratulate our current Cultural Officer Clíodhna Kerr and her Culture Committee on their work.

Match programmes have been a feature of all our FC matches this year. As with today's high quality programme, our Communications committee led by Eunan Lindsay, our PRO ensured these programmes were available. I thank Eunan and the Committee for all their work in 2015.

Finally, I thank you our supporters and members of the clubs for the part you play here on Tyrone Club Football's biggest day. Without you there would be no atmosphere, no passion. You add to the occasion.

Thank you

Le gach dea-mhéin,
Roisin Jordan

A WORD FROM OUR SPONSOR...

Donnelly Vauxhall are delighted to be part of a great day for Tyrone football and the supporters, congratulations to all 4 of today's finalists, Killyclogher, Trillick, Dromore and Loughmacrory. It has been tough going to get to this stage and all the hard work culminates with the opportunity to play on the biggest day of the year in Tyrone Club Football.

It will be a tough going between the teams today and they have overcome some difficult hurdles to reach the final. I am sure the vast support will be treated to a good games of football played with commitment and passion.

For me personally, I am looking forward to seeing the matches and the battle for the 2015 championship. I would like to thank all the Clubs, the County Committee and of course all of the football supporters for their support and partnership during this year's Championship and I wish everyone involved in the games today the very best of luck.

Yours in Sport
Terence Donnelly

MINI GAME REFEREES

Conor McAleer Killyclogher
Sinead Donnelly Coalisland
Owen Canavan Brocagh

Well done to the latest three young members of the Tyrone Young Referee's Academy to take charge of the Mini Games during today's Senior Championship Final.

These stars of the future have been involved in officiating throughout the U13 League and hopefully their appearance on today's big stage will act as the spur to greater achievement on their Referees Pathway.

Jerome McElroy
Aghaloo

The Aghaloo O'Neill's clubman is in his 26th year of refereeing after taking up the whistle in 1990. Married to Jenny, they have three boys, Patrick, Niall and James, with Niall lining out for Aghaloo last Sunday in the Junior County Final. Jerome is employed as a driver by Europarts.

While this will be his first Senior County final, Jerome has refereed all the main finals within the County. He refereed the Junior Final between Brocagh v Newtownstewart in 2009 and the Intermediate Final between Galbally v Kildress in 2011 as well as the U21 Final between Errigal Ciaran v Coalisland. He also took charge of the Ulster Club League Final in 2012. Jerome has played all his football with Aghaloo winning two Junior Championship medals with his Club as well as a Reserve League Medal. Jerome has also served in various managerial roles within the Club and his hobbies include cycling and running.

His umpires today are Connor Russell, Dermot Monaghan Mickey McCarron and Paddy Grimes and Jerome credits them with having played a big part getting him to this stage of his refereeing career.

After a hectic opening weekend in Scor na nOg which concludes tonight in Cookstown at 6pm, the venues for the Semi-Finals have been confirmed as the Patrician Hall, Carrickmore on Friday 23rd October and Dun Uladh on Sunday 25th October. Details of which venue your club will attend will be announced later in the week. The Scor na nOg County Final takes place in Killeeshil Community Centre on Sunday 8th November at 3pm.

LOUGHMACRORY ACCORDION BAND

Loughmacrory Accordion Band, Páistí Ná Fingréine, was formed in the early 1970's and is named after the largest lough in the Loughmacrory area, Lough Fingrean.

The band was very active for over a decade and re-grouped again in 1987 for the official opening of St Mary's Chapel in Loughmacrory. They spent the following 4 years 'on the march' around Fleadheanna, parades, sports days and competitions and were then largely inactive until 2009 when they re-formed to celebrate the 125th anniversary of Cumann Luthchleas Gael.

Practice sessions are planned for the autumn and winter and anyone who wants to join up is very welcome.

Full details can be accessed on www.loughmacrory.com or by emailing loughmacrory@gmail.com.

Páistí Ná Fingréine is delighted with this opportunity to play at the Hurling and Football County Finals this year and the members are very thankful to Tyrone County Committee for the invitation.

The national anthem is being sung today by Dearbhla Scallan from the Gortin St Patrick's club our current Scór na nOg Solo Singing Champion and recent All Ireland Fleadh Champion.

We are proud in Tyrone that all singers of the National Anthem are aware that the piece was written as a marching song and deliver it so. We encourage all spectators to join in singing this proud song.

PROUD SUPPORTERS OF DROMORE U16

The Committee of An Droim Mór would like to wish the U16 boys and management every success in the county final. The U16 championship is one that is of particular significance to Dromore as we annually host the prestigious Paul McGirr Tournament and it would be wonderful to see our own boys in the competition.

1998 was the last time we won this competition with a team that featured many boys who went on to play a major part in our recent senior championship success's and we have no doubt that many of this current team will feature for Dromore seniors in the years to come. It has been a very difficult season for the boys having lost Odhran Rafferty, Oisin Gallogly and Eoghan McShane to serious injuries and more recently full back Ciaran McDermott who suffered a cruciate injury. However the rest of the boys have worked extremely hard throughout the season and although going in as underdogs to a talented Loughmacrory team there is no doubt that the boys will give 100% on the day, hopefully bringing the trophy back up the road with them after a 17 year gap.

GARVAGHEY You have built it and they have come

“If we build it, they will come” is the misquoted line from the film ‘Field of Dreams’ but if we change it to the past tense it’s certainly very true about Garvaghey, which continues to far exceed all our original usage projections.

During the first nine months of 2014/15, ie from November 2014 to July 2015, Garvaghey has catered for 45,000 users/visitors. Some 38,000 of them were Gaelic Games users of the Centre, representing a near-250% ‘over-achievement’ of the projected eventual annual total of 16,000 such users set out in our original Garvaghey plans.

The main groups using Garvaghey over those nine months have been:

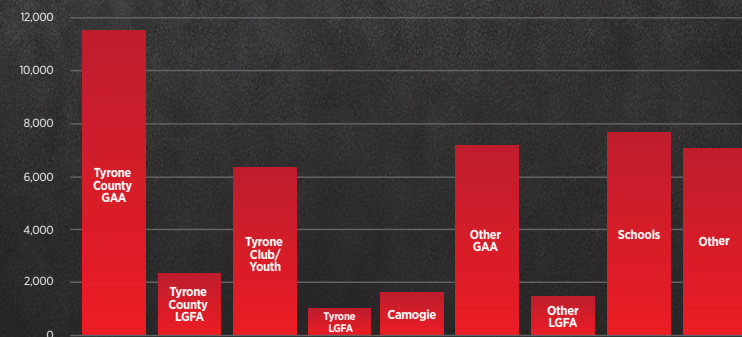

- Tyrone GAA County team users (Seniors, Minors and Under 21s): 330 sessions involving 11,300 participants
- Tyrone LGFA County team users (Seniors and Minors): 84 sessions involving 2,440 participants
- Other Tyrone GAA users (Clubs, Acadamh Thír Eoghain, blitzes): 6,327
- Other Tyrone LGFA users (Clubs, underage, blitzes): 992

- GAA, LGFA and Camogie users from outside Tyrone: 8,128
- Schools users: 7,527
- Other ‘non-games’ users (events, meetings, walkers): 6,867

At the same time 138 Tyrone GAA meetings involving 1,649 participants (1,245 men and 404 women) were hosted in Garvaghey.

Our gender balance of users is about 71:29 men-to-women and the age balance is about 54:46 between Under and Over 18s. About 15% of users (some 6,800 people) are from outside NI.

Who's Using Garvaghey?

2015 TYRONE SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

AODHÁN HARKIN

The footballers of Killyclogher St Mary's and Trillick St Macartan's will battle it out here today for the right to lift the O'Neill Cup and an entertaining game of football is anticipated from these two very evenly matched sides. Killyclogher won their sole Tyrone Senior Championship title back in 2003 by defeating Errigal Ciarán whilst Trillick have to go way back to 1986 for their last success at this level when they defeated Dungannon to claim their sixth and last title.

Trillick won their first ever Senior Championship crown way back in 1937 when they defeated Donaghmore but a team from that parish Kilskeery McDonagh's actually appeared in a final in 1916-17 when they lost out to Cookstown Brian Óg's. Killyclogher claimed Junior Football and Senior Hurling titles during the early years of their formation but had never appeared in a Senior Football Championship final until 1999 when they lost out to their neighbours Carrickmore.

Killyclogher's one and only title success came twelve years ago as they narrowly defeated Errigal Ciarán in the 2003 final. Several of those who won the O'Neill Cup on that occasion are still involved in the present set up with Dermot Carlin, Eoin Bradley, Leo Meenan, Niall McFadden, Mark O'Kane and Niall Bradley all playing members whilst Kieran Howe who played at centre half back on the breakthrough side for the St Mary's is now the team manager. Terry McCann was a veteran of the Killyclogher squad back in 2003 coming on as a late substitute for that famous win and he will no doubt be hoping that his two sons Tiernan and Conall can emulate his personal achievement following a long career by finishing up on today's winning side.

Whilst you wouldn't expect that any of the Trillick players from their last success in 1986 would still be playing then you'll be very surprised to learn that many of that great side will today look on with pride as their sons now go in search of O'Neill Cup glory. Mattie and Richie Donnelly are sons of Liam who proudly captained the team of 1986, Niall and Shane Gormley are sons of Seamus, Niall Donnelly is a son of Sean, Daire Gallagher is a son of Iggy, Fergal Donnelly is a son of Gerard, Damien Kelly is a son of John and Keelan Kelly is a son of Gregory. Many others involved in the panel have strong connections to winning Trillick teams of the past and so maintaining the proud and strong history of the "Reds".

On their way to today's final Killyclogher have seen off the challenges of Errigal Ciarán, Strabane and Dromore whilst Trillick defeated Dungannon, Greencastle and Coalisland to secure their first final since 1987 when they lost out to Ardboe following a replay. Kieran Howe alongside John McElholm form the St Mary's management team whilst the St Macartan's will be led by Nigel Seaney, Stephen Kelly, Malachy McElholm and Brian O'Kane.

Many of the players involved here today have played side by side with Tyrone all season long with the Donnelly brothers Mattie and Richie (Trillick) and the McCann brothers Tiernan and Conall (Killyclogher) amongst those involved at Senior level whilst the Brennan brothers Rúairi and Lee and Rúairi Kelly from Trillick alongside Mark Bradley and Sean Fox of Killyclogher all played their part as Tyrone Under 21 footballers lifted the Ulster and All-Ireland titles.

Both clubs have had a very proud tradition of involvement within the GAA in Tyrone dating back to the birth of the association in the Red Hand County in 1904. Killyclogher and Trillick alongside the likes of Cookstown, Dungannon, Strabane, Donaghmore, Galbally, Clonoe and Omagh were amongst the early clubs after the formation of the first County Board in 1904 and they have certainly maintained a very strong presence in their local areas in many aspects of the Association.

They have also provided Tyrone with many fine players and administrators down through the years with both club grounds extensively developed to a very high standard which are a credit to all those now involved and indeed those who set out in the early 1900's with great hopes and aspirations and just couldn't have imagined that more than a century on that their legacy would still be evident.

Whenever I think or talk about the GAA in Killyclogher and Trillick names that immediately spring to my mind includes the likes of Brendan Harkin, Donal Magee, Anthony Connolly, Seamus McDonald, John Coney, Noel McGinn, Vinny Owens, Terry McCann, Dominic McCaughey, Raymond Monteith, Dermot McCaughey, Liam Donnelly, Patsy McCaughey, Sean Donnelly, Michael McCaughey and Oliver McSorley.

All of them and countless others not mentioned or whom I've apologetically omitted have been deeply involved over the course of many years in driving both clubs forward and the ultimate prize for them all is an appearance in the 2015 Senior Football Championship Final. If someone had predicted this pairing at the start of the year they would probably have been scoffed at but today it's a reality and they both fully deserve their day of glory win, lose or draw.

Ádh Mór is extended to both Killyclogher and Trillick in their bid to lift the Donnelly Vauxhall Tyrone Senior Football Championship title and best wishes to the eventual winners in their Ulster Club Championship opener on Sunday 1st November against the Donegal Champions, St Eunan's Letterkenny or Naomh Conaill Glenties which will be played at MacCumhaill Park Ballybofey.

For the record, the winners of the Tyrone Senior Championship titles in periods of twenty-five years were as follows:

1915 – No competition played (100th Anniversary)

1940 – Carrickmore St Colmcille's (75th Anniversary)

1965 – Clonoe O'Rahilly's (50th Anniversary)

1990 – Coalisland Na Fianna (25th Anniversary)

"ONLY THE BEST IS GOOD ENOUGH FOR THOSE WHO PLAY AND FOR THOSE WHO SUPPORT OUR GAMES"

This is a big day for our Club and Parish. We thank our players and management team for their efforts, dedication and skills. We wish them all the best. Ádh mór.

We thank all those who play, coach, promote and actively participate in keeping our Gaelic games flourishing in Cappagh – Football, Hurling, Ladies Football, Handball and, of course, Scór – in our schools and in our club. You can take pride in the part you have played in bringing this day about. So, too, can those who have done similar work down the years.

Ballinamullan has become the home of An CLG in Cappagh and our hospitality committee ensures that all visitors are given a warm welcome following a hot competitive game on the field. Day to day running costs are met through our annual membership, supporters attending games and functions, those who subscribe to and those who promote our weekly Lottsodoo and Bingo. Our generous local businesses support us annually financially through side-line hoardings.

We continue to improve our facilities through our ongoing development projects and a programme of high quality maintenance largely paid for by the generosity of the members of Cairde Cappagh. We are also indebted to those who make machinery and equipment available free of charge as well as to the willing volunteers who put their skills, talents, energy and know how at the disposal of our club. Recent developments have been the extension of the terracing and a novel fundraiser is the sponsoring of a step with a marble plaque in a family name.

Generous sponsors and enthusiastic volunteers have established our annual 10K Run and Walk and our Golf Classics as eagerly awaited major social and fundraising events. That same enthusiasm, coupled with good organisation, was central in recent years to the success of major cycling events and Strictly Come Dancing and is once again to the fore in the large group organising and rehearsing for our pantomime in November.

We thank the individuals and businesses for their generous support for our County Final Fundraising over the past couple of weeks and those who organised and supported the Big Breakfast.

Please let us know if you would like further information about our Lottsodoo, Cairde Cappagh, side-line hoardings, fundraising events, names on the steps. We would appreciate your interest and would also like to hear your ideas about other types of functions and activities.

Remember our Gaelic games are the best. Only the best is good enough for those who play and for those who support our games. That's why we strive to improve our facilities.

In the meantime we are involved in a sporting struggle to win the O'Neill Cup – the biggest prize in Football in Tír Eoghain.

We really appreciate your support.

A VIEW FROM THE TOP KILLYCLOGHER

THE MANAGER, KIERAN HOWE & JOHN McELHOLM

Like all successful double acts down the years, it's all about working together to secure the best outcome. That is underscored at Ballinamullan as Kieran Howe and John McElholm talk about Killiclogher - their club, their community, their Parish and of course their goal, a second Tyrone Senior Football title.

The duo are dyed in the wool "Boys in Blue" with family ties and a passion for the club, both having played at under 10 and up, prompting memories of a certain Brendan Harkin being involved then and now.

"Brendan, the likes of Donal Magee, Leo, Paul, James, Paddy and Ciara, have all played a big part for us, there's far more too, we get the odd pat on the back if we win but without those real club people too we would not have any success."

Kieran played in the 2003 final win over Errigal Ciaran "I remember it well, a real tough battle but well worth all the effort. We had two weeks between the semi-final and final this year, more than enough time although we could have done without league games, but you have to prepare as best you can"

Howe has been a major player in the St Mary's return to the final and alongside McElholm, he has moulded the young and not so young into a fine footballing force.

John McElholm has this group of players flying fit but he admits there's more to the progression than just fitness alone.

"The players have bought into what we are doing and have a belief in themselves too, that comes from being consistent, getting results week in week out"

McElholm, whose grandfather incidentally is a Trillick man, and Howe know the quality of their opposition, "They are a good team, just look at the players they have at their disposal, it's just good player after good player, we have a mammoth job to do"

The final has created a real buzz in the community a fact not lost on Kieran. "It has been great, a real occasion for two small villages, the flags and the colour it's great to be part of it, but it's important though not to get involved in all the hype and excitement, it's about winning now.. nothing else"

THE CAPTAIN, LEO MEENAN

Leo Meenan will feature in the county final today as captain of his beloved Killiclogher. Having lost two finals, playing a bit part in both, Leo was delighted to get his hands on a Senior Football Championship medal in 2003, a double day of delight for him too as he collected the top scorer award with 2-20 after hitting 1-3 in the final.

Twelve years on and Leo will lead his team out following in the footsteps of brother Brian who captained the team in 2003.

"A great honour, I've been lucky enough to have been captain now for a couple of years and we have been consistent winning the league last year, it puts us in a great position"

The semi-final was a clinker of a tie, the St Mary's skipper was glad to get over the line against Dromore.

"It was some battle, we almost let them back into it but we worked hard, that has been key for us all year"

The All-Ireland winner was a raw twenty year old back in 2003, in his third final appearance, he is now one of the "old stagers", so it is of added importance that he shows leadership to the clutch of youngsters coming to a first final.

"We all have a job to do, myself, the likes of Eoin Bradley and Dermot Carlin were youngsters twelve years ago and we had plenty of help ourselves. Now its up to us to help this group of young lads in our squad and win the O'Neill Cup again."

A VIEW FROM THE TOP TRILLICK

THE MANAGER, NIGEL SEANEY

Just over twelve months have elapsed since they suffered a shock defeat in the Tyrone Intermediate Final but now Trillick find themselves in the Senior decider. Promotion to the top flight was secured last term and Dungannon, their conquerors in that championship loss in 2014 were put to the sword in some style in the first round this year.

It may be a surprise to some that the Reds are on the march again, not to their manager Nigel Seaney, “They’re good footballers, all over the park we have quality, from Joe Maguire in goals to Proinsias O’Kane, they have all put in the effort.”

There’s a calmness to the Trillick boss, quiet belief in his players who have showed dash, drive and verve through their championship campaign, from that mauling of Dungannon, led by Lee Brennan, to the demolition of many people’s favourites for the O’Neill Cup Coalisland.

“That was only a semi-final win” impressed the manager on the media after the eight point win at Plunkett Park.

“You will be judged by the way you finish the tournament not before. The boys played well, yes, they have belief in themselves, express themselves and work together.”

Trillick are back in the county final for the first time since 1987, it’s the sons, nephews and cousins of many of the successful Reds teams that carry the mantle now and, says Seaney, they are a hard working bunch with their star names but a fair few unsung heroes making up this squad.

“The likes of Joe Maguire was asked to improve aspects of his game, he did that on his own and came back to the group, him and Stevie O’Donnell are young lads that are really growing this year. Ruairi Kelly and Rory Brennan are going well but so too are the likes of Sean Kelly, Gary McKenna and Proinsias O’Kane, they have all put in big shifts this season.

Overall it has been a massive team effort on and off the field and nothing would make me prouder than taking the O’Neill Cup back to Trillick.”

THE CAPTAIN, MATTHEW DONNELLY

Not a day goes by that Matty Donnelly is not reminded of some of Trillick’s glory days from the past. It’s not that his father Liam boasts about leading the side to their last championship success at Plunkett Park in 1986, it’s more subtle than that with photos from that win over Dungannon greeting the young Trillick captain every morning.

Matty will follow in his Father’s footsteps to captain Trillick in a Senior County Final this Sunday, the wonderfully talented Tyrone star and 2 time All-Star nominee is well aware of his club’s famous history.

“It’s a great motivator for us all, to know the tradition, to know where we have come from, we just try and represent the jersey as best we can and so far that has stood us well, it has got us to a County Final”

To some Trillicks rise has been sudden, maybe surprising, considering their ups and downs but the skipper would refute those suggestions.

“I wouldn’t say that. We look back at 2012 when we pressed Carrickmore in the Championship, a win against Ardboe in 2013 was a step in the right direction. We were unlucky to be relegated and then last year we were going through the league unbeaten before losing in the Intermediate Final but last year’s end of season games has stood to us”

Trillick even with their massive county representation face a real challenge against Killyclogher who, says the captain, are in a similar position to Trillick.

“They have three or four players around the county squad that may have a big impact on the final, they will prove a big threat to us. All stacks up to be a great game we can’t wait”

SOME SEASON – BUT WHAT NEXT?

PADDY HUNTER

In such a football mad county and with such a small number of hurling clubs one could be forgiven for seeing the hurling fraternity as a very small part of the bigger Tyrone picture. For those who follow the fortunes of the small ball game though you will be well aware that Tyrone Inter County hurling is in a more than healthy state.

After several successful seasons, Mattie Lennon has opted to step aside from the managerial hotseat. The Armagh native leaves Tyrone in a great position, his passion for the game was always evident. Lets hope that great work can continue.

In winning promotion with the Division 3B title of the Allianz League and Nicky Rackard Cup last year the success continued with a League 3A success this year and an extended run in the Cup again coupled with an appearance in the All-Ireland U21 C Final and a victory in the All-Ireland Minor C Competition.

Sadly, those in charge of the so called “lower tiers” of hurling felt the necessity for a promotion play-off and our seniors just missed out on what would have been a well earned and deserved step up to Division Two, but still what a Spring and early Summer we enjoyed.

The work rate and commitment shown by the gallant group of senior players under the guidance of Mattie Lennon and Dave Kennedy was evident from the start of the League campaign, they had bought into the gospel according to Lennon and it was paying dividends. Winning breeds winners they say and that was the mantra of Tyrone going into 2015 and life in Division 3A of the Allianz Hurling League.

It all started at Healy Park and a hard earned draw against Monaghan, the highlight, as was the case through much of the campaign, 1-7 from Damien Casey, there was also a debut for a new centre half back in the guise of Dermot Begley, he appeared in every game for the county this year. Next up was a trip to Fingal and a one point win followed by a great win over Fermanagh with Sean Og Grogans 3-3 a superb return for the Eire Og’s man.

Damien Casey hit 0-11 against Louth in a 1-20 to 2-7 win before high drama against Roscommon, level on several occasions throughout, Sean Og found the net before Casey landed a mammoth free to seal the single point victory on a day when a win was required to secure a final berth. Casey finished that game with 0-10 and it was enough to see the young Dungannon man collect the Ulster GAA writers merit award winner for March.

The accountancy student certainly got his figures right with a stream of scores that kept Tyrone pressing for promotion as the Red Hands defeated Roscommon, Louth and Fermanagh. He rifled over 31 points in three matches during March, including one pointed free from 100 yards.

Apart from his scoring and general play, Casey’s leadership, as captain, stood out this year clearly defined in the final against Monaghan in the League final. Eventually Tyrone got over the line with Casey hitting 0-9 but valuable scoring contributions from the back Mark Winters, Grogan and Chris Cross as well as stout defending from Justin Kelly, Tiernan Morgan and Begley.

So silverware handed over to our captain by Martin McAviney but manager Lennon was far from impressed by the venue choice or indeed the fact there was no straight promotion. A play-off required against Donegal and it was off to Owenbeg. A thrilling contest ended all square 4-13 apiece. 2-8 from Casey and goals from Sean Og and Conor Grogan, indeed it was Donegal who were the happier to get out of jail.

The replay did not allow much time for recovery and in the end Tyrone just came up short, that brief heartbreak though was soon rubbed out at wet and cold Letterkenny as 1-7 from Damien Casey helped Tyrone to a much merited 1-12 to 0-11 win on the opening day of the Nicky Rackard Cup and so we were off again on the championship trail.

Carrickmore’s Pairc Colmcille was in superb condition as we welcomed Armagh in the next round of the Rackard, sadly Tyrone conceded a couple of stunning goals and it was a different route required if the Cup was to be retained. A Saturday afternoon trip to Fingalians to meet

The work rate and commitment shown by the gallant group of senior players under the guidance of Mattie Lennon and Dave Kennedy was evident from the start...

Fingal, another poor surface but what a thrilling encounter. It was a tough battle that swung on a couple of Gearld Gilmore and Conor Grogan points, a wonder strike from Aidan Kelly, 0-10 from Casey and a stunning goal from the wee man himself Matthew Mulgrew. A 1-21 to 0-20 win.

Sadly it was all too much in the end. Week in, week out without rest took its toll back at Carrickmore as Roscommon put paid to a planned return to Croke Park to defend the Cup, winning the Semi Final clash by five points, but what a gallant bid by a weakened Tyrone.

Attention turned to the new look Under 21 series, a C grade for the Andrew O’Neill Cup, named after a great young East Tyrone hurler from Naomh Colmcille. Remarkably though there was no Ulster series this year for Tyrone so it was all hands on deck for this new competition. A 0-15 to 1-7 win over Fermanagh set up a semi-final outing against Louth, that game did not go ahead as the wee county pulled out leaving another trip to Derry and a meeting with Donegal, on an horrendous evening for hurling, it went to the wire with a lucky Donegal goal at the death sealing the title on the score 1-11 to 0-11.

The Tyrone team and scorers were: Aaron Devine, Andrew Byrne, Ruari Devlin, Mark McCrory, Damhlaic Rush, Sean Muldoon, Lorcan Devlin, Ryan McKernan 0-1, Dean Rafferty, Josh Ferguson, Duibhir Marshall 0-6, Ricky Kelly, Peader Daly 0-1, Matthew Mulgrew 0-3, Ciaran McCrudden.

Subs used: Paul Conway For Rush, Branan Molloy For McCrudden

The inter county season came to an end at the end of September and what an ending. After an epic clash with Mayo that ended in a draw, our county minor squad eventually collected the All Ireland Minor C title with a dramatic comeback win in the replay in Leitrim. What outstanding gallant displays from the players and management, delight was just not enough to reflect how everyone felt after two emotional rollercoasters of finals. Thrilling stuff and what an occasion and achievement winning 2-12 to 1-10

The Tyrone team and scorers were: C Tanney; J Kerr, P Kerr, K Muldoon; L O’Donnghaile, L Devlin, D Rushe; P Conway, D Rafferty; P Daly (0-3), B Molloy (1-5, 4f), D O’Donnghaile (0-1); J Campbell (1-0), P McErlean (0-2), J Ferguson.

Subs used: C McNulty (0-1) for J Ferguson; M Farley for J Campbell; L Flanagan for P Conway, C Lagan for P McErlean.

At club level Eire Og edged out the old enemy Eoghan Ruadh on County Final day, nip and tuck throughout it took a late point from Aidy Kelly to clinch the Benburb cup again. Naomh Colmcille were the only other senior side this year but there’s still plenty of work being done throughout the county at underage level.

Roll on 2016!

COMMITTING. SUPPORTING.
INVESTING. CELEBRATING.

WHATEVER IT TAKES FOR TYRONE GAA.

Club Tyrone is always about taking the long view. We combine that with doing whatever is needed to resource Tyrone GAA and its work. Since 2008 we concentrated on funding Garvaghey. Now we want to re-focus on the core business, the games and the people who play them.

Earlier this year Tyrone GAA significantly reshaped how we take forward the development of our talented young players. We've moved away from our previous Development Squads model and put in place a new, more rounded Acadamh Thír Eoghain, which brings together over 200 of our most talented players, in four groups from Under 15 to Under 20. It works with each player in the contexts in which he lives his life – home/family, school/college, Club, career path and personal needs and ambitions. The job is to help them to grow and develop, as people as well as players. And 100 Tyrone GAA volunteers – including a 'full team' of All-Ireland Senior medal holders – have signed up to help deliver all this.

Club Tyrone's 'Dragain Thír Eoghain' (Tyrone Dragons) initiative is there to help resource Acadamh Thír Eoghain. In the wider world Dragons are people who invest in things which will give them a good return. Our Dragons are people who invest in Acadamh Thír Eoghain because they believe it will give a good return to our County and its people, and particularly our young people. Dragain Thír Eoghain commit to support Acadamh Thír Eoghain in a traditional Club Tyrone planned giving way, by gifting £5,000 to this very rewarding work, usually over five years. Their money is unequivocally ring-fenced for Tyrone GAA youth development and therefore dedicated to securing Tyrone's GAA future.

Since its launch in June we've had 50 people sign up as Dragain Thír Eoghain. It's remarkable proof of the belief people have in the GAA here. If you're interested just let us know and we'll sit down with you and explain things further.

LADIES REVIEW

PADDY HUNTER

The Inter County season for the Tyrone ladies ended on the first weekend of August as Mayo eased to a comfortable win over our senior side in the first round of the qualifiers, Tyrone struggling to deal with a dominant performance from Mayo legend Cora Staunton. Our seniors, a team very much in transition, will perhaps be glad to see the end of 2015 with an eye on gearing up for next season but there are plenty of positives to take out of the season, but the evidence is clear, there is a lot of work still to be done.

The County Minors reached the Ulster Final while the Under 16s claimed the Ulster title in horrendous conditions at Donagh with a fine win over a fancied Monaghan side. The Under 14s had a difficult season, ending in an Ulster C final loss. That loss in a C final has perhaps defined the need for improved structures across the board. There is certainly an abundance of quality young footballers coming through the ranks but the difficult thing would appear to be bringing those players through to senior level.

The senior's national league campaign was a difficult one for both Tiffy Quinn and Tony McVeigh who stepped into the management breach. They suffered some heavy losses but secured Division 1 status with a decent performance and good win over Laois at Drumragh, a game heavily promoted and attended by a bumper crowd.

Staying in the top flight may though be a double edged sword, nice to be there but to what benefit? "Perhaps dropping down to the second division would not have been the end of the world" claimed Quinn, "You always want to win and be playing the best but relegation could have given this evolving squad some breathing space and allowed them to develop, they could well have been winning regular games and that breeds confidence".

Despite some poor results return there were some high spots in the campaign, with a number of formerly fringe players and new faces coming in to establish themselves as Senior County footballers. There were some decent performances too and while the championship ended with a loss to Mayo after an Ulster Semi-Final loss to Donegal, the performance against an emerging Cavan provided the small but loyal ladies following with something to smile about at Brewster Park.

While the minors were left disappointed at their Ulster final loss, winning Ulster was a wonderful achievement for the under 16s. The Ulster win, at wet and wild Donagh, over a very good Monaghan side was one of the year's real gems. Brian McGinn, Kevin Bogle and the management team developed a fine young side and many shone too in this years club senior championship and will be knocking on the Senior door next year. They were beaten in the end by a good Galway side in the All-Ireland Semi Final.

The Patrick Fahy and Co Solicitors club champions for 2015 are Errigal Ciaran, Glenelly and Trillick, each of them through thrilling finals to annex the silverware.

Trillick, inspired by Fiona McCarney, eventually saw off one of the emerging forces Edendork in the Junior final to claim a first Ladies Championship for the "Reds". Urney played host to the Intermediate final, and that was a thrilling North Tyrone derby between Clann na nGael and Glenelly. Aisling O'Kane's opportune second half goal proved crucial for the St Josephs as they held off a late rally from their neighbours. Despite the best efforts of Mairead Conwell and Anne Daly, the Clanns just came up short.

The senior final meanwhile attracted a massive crowd to Killyclogher.

Reigning champions St Macartans had accounted for Aodh Ruadh on route to a final outing with Errigal Ciaran who had edged out Carrickmore in a superb semi-final. What a thrilling final, Errigal looked home and hosed after Shannon Monaghan, Lyrecia Quinn and Maria Canavan all scored goals after their side turned in a wonderful defensive display. Late goals from Paula Donnelly and Chloe McCaffery left just a point between the team's at the end with Errigal crowned champions again for the first time since 2012.

TOP SCORERS

IT'S OVER THE BAR... 2015 CHAMPIONSHIP SCORING STATS

There was little doubt about the winner of the Patsy Forbes Top Scorer award ahead of the 2014 Senior Football Final, Omagh's Ronan O'Neill took away the trophy with a grand total of 4-15 while in 2013 Conor McAliskey looked home and hosed ahead of Clonoe's final with Carrickmore as the O'Rahillys marched on to the O'Neill Cup and this year Trillick's Lee Brennan will be hoping history then repeats itself in this years senior football decider.

The Trillick forward is virtually uncatchable at the head of the top scorer chart ahead of the decider with 1-23, his nearest rival still involved is Conal McCann with 1-8 for Killyclogher with 2003 top scorer Leo Meenan on 0-9, Mark Bradley on 1-4 ahead of Brennan's team mates Mattie Donnelly and Niall Gormley on 0-6 apiece.

A massive 1-10 against Dungannon from Lee put him virtually out of sight, he added a decent 0-6 in the semi-final too. Dromore's Eoin McCusker, a top scorer himself on three occasions currently sits second on the chart with 1-9, his 1-3 against Ardboe matched by 1-3 for Conal McCann against Strabane.

Paddy McNeice Coalisland recorded 0-12 in three games while Darie Kavanagh hit 1-5 as Augher lost to Strabane.

Trillick have had ten different scorers in this year's championship run of three games, they have scored 3-43 conceding 2-21. Killyclogher's best scoring total was against Errigal Ciaran at Carrickmore scoring 2-10, they have relied on eleven score getters in their three games scoring 3-35 with just 0-27, exactly the same in total as the Reds have conceded.... an interesting wee stat for attackers this weekend.

AODHÁN HARKIN

THE GOOD OLD REFEREE

It takes a lot of hard work, effort and planning to get to a Tyrone Senior Football Championship Final but sadly many clubs have never achieved such although I've no doubt that it's every players ambition to someday play in the showpiece decider and hopefully to go on and lift the coveted O'Neill Cup.

However even to get to this stage, there's one group of people without whom there would be no players or clubs contesting this decider or indeed any other games within the GAA for that matter and that's the good old referees whom we like to abuse, accuse and even question their parentage every now and again! Every game needs a referee and for the likes of today's Senior Final there will be a number of them involved in roles such as linesmen, fourth official and possibly even as umpires but the one person that stands out is the man or indeed possibly in this day and age maybe even the woman that will have the ultimate responsibility to make the game happen and if it goes wrong well he or she is usually the first person to blame and takes all the flak.

Much will have been written about the participants in today's final and indeed about teams of years gone by that either won or played in a County Final but little is ever mentioned about the referee so I've decided to take a look back at Tyrone Senior Championship Finals over the years and at some of the personalities involved. Just like the clubs aspiring to play in a County Final it's no doubt also every referee's wish that they would like to take charge of such a prestigious game but again like the players not all of them get to achieve such an honour.

The first ever Tyrone Senior Football Championship decider featuring Coalisland and Strabane was played away back in 1904 and was refereed by James Rice (Dungannon).

Down through the years several Tyrone County Board Chairpersons also have had the honour of taking charge of the finals with Fr James McManus (Kilskeery), Fr James McGilligan (Carrickmore), Fr Thomas Kirke (Trillick), Fr Peter Hughes (Pomeroy) and the most recent was Cuthbert Donnelly (Aghaloo) in 1988 when he took charge of the clash between Omagh and Clonoe. I suppose that Cuthbert was the odd one out amongst the aforementioned as he wasn't a priest but I've no doubt that he was often referred to as "God" in Tyrone when he became the handler of the coveted Sam Maguire Cup following the Red Hand's success in 2003, 05 and 08.

A look back at those who have officiated at the Tyrone Senior Championship Final shows that the great Paddy Devlin (Omagh) took charge of five deciders with the first being in 1960 when Clonoe defeated Donaghmore. His last final was some forty years ago as he was in the middle for the clash of Trillick and Owen Roes in 1975. Paddy no doubt leads the way but close behind him are Eamon Mullin (Ballygawley) and Michael Hughes (Donaghmore) who have both refereed four finals each. A number of others have refereed three finals including; Jackie Martin (Omagh), Olly Slane (Carrickmore & Beragh), Shane Corr (Coalisland), Jim Curran (Ardboe), Dessie Slater (Dungannon) and Martin Mohan (Eglis). The first person ever to referee three finals in a row was Patrick Gallagher (Omagh) from 1943-45.

Some other well known names that have taken charge of the premier competition deciders in Tyrone over the years include the likes of Mena Devlin (Derrygloughan), Jim Magee (Strabane), Billy Melly (Urney), Gerry McCabe (Clonoe), Jack Heaney (Beragh), Paddy Quinn (Killyclogher), Paddy Corrigan (Urney), Barney Taggart There's one group of people without whom there would be no players or clubs contesting this decider or indeed any other games within the GAA for that matter and that's the good old referees whom we like to abuse, accuse and even question their parentage every now and again!

(Clonoe), Leonard Duffy (Cookstown), Frank Campbell (Pomeroy), Donal O'Neill (Derrygloughan), Martin Sludden (Dromore), Stephen McNamee (Newtownstewart), John Kerlin (Clann na nGael), Kieran Kelly (Kildress), Sean Quinn (Brackaville), Martin Kolbohm (Rock), Cathal O'Hagan (Brackaville) and not forgetting last years man in the middle Sean Hurson (Galbally).

Eamon McHugh (Aghyaran) has taken charge of two finals to date, the first in 2010 and he was appointed once again in 2011 to take charge of the decider between Dromore and Clonoe but had to retire after just a few minutes owing to an injury only to be replaced by the standby official on the day Eugene McConnell (Clogher) for his first taste of action on the big stage at a Senior County final. You've often heard of players being substituted but rarely ever a referee!

Jerome McElroy (Aghaloo) today joins that elite list of officials that have taken charge of a Senior Championship final and I've no doubt that he will do an excellent job as he has steadily progressed through the ranks from a player to one of the top referees in Tyrone. He now joins his fellow clubman Cuthbert Donnelly on that illustrious roll of honour and I wish him well in his endeavours.

A number of those referees mentioned went on to take charge of many games at National and Provincial levels with Paddy Devlin still the only man from Tyrone to have the unique honour of taking charge of an All Ireland Senior Final when he was in the middle for the 1972 clash of Offaly and Kerry and again in 1974 for the meeting of Dublin and Galway Jack Heaney, Jackie Martin, Michael Hughes, Dessie Slater, Jim Curran, Martin Sludden, Cathal O'Hagan, Eamon McHugh and presently Sean Hurson are amongst just some of those dedicated officials that have gone on to take charge of major games outside Tyrone and I feel that it's long overdue that a second Tyrone referee was appointed to take charge of a Senior All-Ireland final.

Several officials from outside Tyrone have also taken charge of the Senior Championship decider in years gone by with a look through the records indicating that referees from Belfast, Armagh, Monaghan and Portadown all have had the honour of whistling at the top level. The last man from outside Tyrone to take charge of an O'Neill Cup decider was Patsy Lynn (Toome) who sadly passed away just recently, he was in the middle for the 1977 clash as Carrickmore defeated Dromore.

Please remember today and indeed always that the referee is only human like the rest of us and is out there doing their level best whilst also playing their part for their club. Where would we be without the good old referee, love them or loathe them - but there would be no games without them!

STARS IN THEIR EYES

PADDY HUNTER

When having a look back at the statistics for Killyclogher's last County Final appearance in 2003 I had a delve into the match programme from that day. Information secured it would be rude not to have a scan through the entire publication from the historic day but I certainly wasn't expecting to discover a real gem... a back to the future moment.

The county final of 2003 between Killyclogher and Errigal Ciaran was played at Healy Park on October 19th and also featured the Grade Three minor final between Tattyreagh and Aghaloo, with the O'Neill's captain from last weekend, Brian McKenna, lining out at corner forward that day. It was also a special day for the 53 youngsters selected to play in the mini-exhibition match at half time. Page 20 in the match programme carried the list and when you have a glance at this years list it will be worth keeping a mental note for yourself, you may well be seeing the real stars of the future if the list of 2003 is anything to go on.

From County Senior Footballers in both Men and Ladies football, to a couple of player's in today's Senior Final and even a Boxing Champion, twelve years ago they were just delighted to get a wee run out at Healy Park in front of the newly built stand.

Tyrone Ladies keeper Shannon Lynch was joined by familiar names to anyone who follows the ladies game, Aine Canavan, Nicola Rafferty, Lisa Marie Skeffington and Shauneen Ferrity.

Mickey Harte, fresh from guiding Tyrone to a first All-Ireland, maybe had an eye on Ronan O'Neill, Barry Tierney and Conor McAliskey while club stars Conor McCreesh, Niall Sludden and Darragh McAnenly were also delighted to be selected from the Summer camps.

Two young lads selected that year will be making their county final debuts twelve years on. Killyclogher's Tiernan McCann and Trillick's Fergal Donnelly will need slightly bigger kits in 2015 from the ones in 2003 and it must have been a great day for the young Tiernan who would have supported his Father Terry in the senior final that same afternoon.

Several players including Leo Meenan, Dermot Carlin and Eoin Bradley lined out in that County final and return under the man that played Centre Half Back in 2003, current Killyclogher man Kieran Howe and they link up with the "wee cub" from the half time game.
